

Our Team ready to head for Logan Airport

A typical “batey” or sugar cane village

A Haitian man returning from a day's work in the cane fields

This is Denny a 4th year Dominican medical student who worked with me. He was my interpreter and so helpful!

This is a glimpse of the beautiful green sugar cane fields that go on for miles in the interior of the Dominican Republic

